

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Henry L. Shippee, 35, died Wednesday morning at the home of Estelle L. Green in Wester, where he had been making his home. He was formerly of Killingly, a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Shippee. Mr. Shippee was a veteran of the Civil War. He leaves no relatives nearer than nephews. The body was taken in charge by Undertaker J. V. Wood and brought to his home in Danielson.

Mrs. Lucy Perkins, widow of Newton Perkins, died Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James Perkins, Maple street, where she had been visiting from Williamstown for the past three weeks. Mrs. Perkins was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Durkee, old residents who lived on South street in the house now occupied by L. D. Crowell. She leaves as sister, Mrs. Mary Stone, of Williamstown. The funeral services are to be held here.

There is a possibility that the state of Rhode Island will build another splendid state highway, westward from North Scituate to the Connecticut line at East Killingly. This project is purely a Rhode Island affair and is intended to restore for the present day overland traffic needs what was in old stage coach days the famous Providence-Hartford pike via East Killingly and Pomfret Landing.

Petitions already are in circulation around the border to have the Rhode Island state highway department take up this project, and it is stated that the prospects of favorable action are very good. Only 11 miles of new highway would have to be built. The new highway would follow the old stage coach route from the Danielson-Hartford pike to the Connecticut line at East Killingly.

The route that it is proposed to improve runs directly eastward from the Danielson-Hartford pike, a short distance beyond the Danielson-Hartford pike, and it is stated that the prospects of favorable action are very good. Only 11 miles of new highway would have to be built. The new highway would follow the old stage coach route from the Danielson-Hartford pike to the Connecticut line at East Killingly.

Rhode Island's state highway building programme is now well advanced and there seems a strong likelihood that the building of the route to East Killingly will be undertaken. It is evident that the road will be needed to care for the ever increasing motor traffic, much of which is concerned with the transportation of goods and materials as well as with pleasure riding.

Continuation of the road from the town of Killingly would mean building from the state line through East Killingly to Killingly Center and Daville Four Corners, from which a state highway leads to Goodspeed, and from Goodspeed to the Putnam-Hartford highway in Pomfret.

The route from the state line to East Killingly is one of the town's concerns that is very busy at the present time, some operations being carried on at night in order to keep abreast of the demand for the concrete products, which are being sent out in almost daily shipments.

A meeting of the Danielson Building and Loan association was held Tuesday evening at the building rooms of the Danielson Trust company and routine matters of business disposed of, including applications for some loans, which were approved.

Reports showed that 97 shares of the 14th series had been subscribed for to date. The association is rounding up another year of successful operation, earning its dividends and functioning in the interest of those who would be real builders or home purchasers in Danielson.

In many households in Danielson there were relatives gathered on Wednesday for the first time this season. A snappy cold morning developed into a day that was the most comfortable of any this fall season.

A very interesting and successful meeting of the Women's club was held at the Baptist church here on Wednesday, with the Killingly Women's club as hostess. The attendance was the largest ever recorded by the club, with many of the members of the club from the surrounding towns.

There was special interest in the announcement that the winter luncheon of the federation is to be held with the Hartford club, on January 12, at which time Mrs. Winter, president of the National Federation of Women's clubs, will be a guest.

Out of town women attending Wednesday's session in Danielson, were delighted with their visit and the hospitality shown them by the entertaining club.

Killingly High School's football team won an easy victory from the Norwich Free Academy team, 25 to 0, Wednesday afternoon on January 12, at which time the team played a very fine game.

Killingly students who saw the game were enthusiastic over the manner in which their team resistlessly swept through the Norwich lines and around its ends for gains that resulted in the largest score of the season for K. H. S.

A Junior class social—the first social event of the year for the students, is scheduled to be held in the assembly hall at Killingly high school Friday evening. Attendance at this social is expected to be very large.

Grand officers are to make a visit to Dorcas Rehearsal lodge on October 27. Members of the lodge are expected to be present at the convention and to be entertained by the lodge.

A meeting of the McGreggor Woman's Relief corps was held at their hall Wednesday evening. The meeting was very successful and the officers reported a very fine record for the corps.

The following review covering T. M. C. A. activities in Williamstown was issued from the association's office in this city: A well attended and very interesting hall at Killingly high school Friday evening. Attendance at this social is expected to be very large.

PUTNAM

At Boston Tuesday in Judge Dowd's court Frederick M. Leeds now deposed, formerly pastor of a church in this city, and Florence Leeds, a youthful New Haven girl, were found guilty of questionable conduct and placed on probation.

Mrs. Leeds appeared to plead for her husband, who she stated was in the court as a model man who may have fallen into indiscretions through overwork. She pleaded that the court allow him to accompany her back to New York where he might enter a private sanatorium for treatment.

In passing upon Mr. Leeds' case Judge Dowd remarked that Mr. Leeds was too learned a man to be lectured for the difficulties which resulted in his appearance in court and told him that it was through Mrs. Leeds' intervention that the case was to be placed in the probate court.

In disposing of the case of Miss Reid Judge Dowd said that he had been shown that she came from a highly respectable family and that the case against her also would be placed in the probate court.

meeting of the leaders of Y. M. C. A. boys' groups was held at the home of Mr. Walter B. Williams, Danielson, on Saturday afternoon, October 14th. One of the interesting features of the meeting was the presentation of the new initiation ceremony which is to be used in initiating all boys into Y. M. C. A. groups. One of the leaders, Paul W. Roper, of Norwich, was initiated and the rest of the leaders were taken in as charter members.

The following officers of the county leaders were elected: Charles D. Tatem of Eastford, president; R. H. Keyes of Thompson, first vice president; Imball Hargrave of Brookfield, second vice president; and Kenneth Sharpe of Putnam, secretary.

These meetings will be held once every month during the winter. Every leader of a boy group in the county should avail himself of the opportunity of attending these meetings in order to exchange ideas and experience with other men in the county who are doing the same work; thereby increase the efficiency of all.

Resolutions are being received at the county office for the state older boys' conference which is to be held at New Britain on October 27th. The Windham county is allowed to send only thirty delegates to this conference and we fully expect to have our full quota.

The conference committee considers that this year's program is one of the best programs ever put on at a state older boys' conference. We are looking forward to a splendid time together there.

The triennial convention of all Y. M. C. A.'s of the United States and Canada will be held at Atlantic City, N. J., on November 1st. Windham county will be represented at this convention by at least five delegates and we hope more. Those already appointed are as follows: G. Harold Gilpatrick, John J. Johnson, Putnam; Thomas J. Seaton, Moosup; Charles D. Tatem, Eastford; John H. Corbett, Putnam.

The senior Y. M. C. A. group of Brookfield has resumed regular meetings for the year under the leadership of Kimball Hargrave. The boys meet in the town hall and have a very enthusiastic group of about 15 members.

The senior Y. M. C. A. group of Brookfield under the leadership of Sherwood B. Potter met Thursday evening at the home of Mr. Potter. At their next meeting they will plan for the winter program.

A meeting of the local committee of Moosup was held at the home of Lucius B. Cranks last Sunday. A good attendance was out and plans were laid for the winter program of the Y. M. C. A. season in Moosup with three organized groups and a possibility of a fourth group.

The Planners of Thompson, B. S. Backus will unite with the Thompson Boys' club and will be under the leadership of B. S. Backus. They have started up themselves a very fine little club room where their meetings will be held. One of the chief features of their club is the fact that they have a very fine group of about 15 members.

The boys are to be congratulated upon the work they have put in to fitting up this club room and also upon the results of the election of the officers. The new officers are: B. S. Backus, president; J. H. Livingston, leader of the Boys' club; and J. H. Livingston, leader of the Boys' club.

Will retain an advisory relationship to the newly formed club. The new officers are: B. S. Backus, president; J. H. Livingston, leader of the Boys' club; and J. H. Livingston, leader of the Boys' club.
